The higher education institution conducts learning, teaching and assessment activities, while the economic operators provide work-based learning activities and hands-on training of students. In order to provide dual degree programmes Babeş-Bolyai University has established collaboration protocols with relevant economic partners in their field of activity, thus providing its graduates with a competitive advantage on the labour market.*

*Under Higher Education Law no. 199/2023, university degree programmes may be organised in consortia for dual education. In the dual system of higher education, the learning, teaching, practical, research and assessment activities are equally distributed between the university and the economic operators, subject to an agreement signed between them. The higher education institution conducts learning, teaching and assessment activities, while the economic operators provide work-based learning activities and hands-on training of students. In order to provide dual degree programmes Babeș-Bolyai University has established collaboration protocols with relevant economic partners in their field of activity, thus providing its graduates with a competitive advantage on the labour market.

Pedagogical Module (Level I - first phase)

The first phase of training consists of two primary components:

- psycho-pedagogical, didactic, and practical training provided by DPPD;
- specialised training provided by the faculties.

One must complete the two components of training in order to become a teacher (psycho-pedagogical, didactic, practical and specialised training).

Successful completion of the psycho-pedagogical training programme Level I entitles you to work as a teacher in mandatory pre-university education, based on the specialisation obtained through the bachelor's degree.

Admission to the Level I psycho-pedagogical training programme will be made exclusively online upon confirmation of place at the faculty.

A motivation essay written in the language of instruction of the Pedagogical module (Romanian, Hungarian or German) is required for admission to the psycho-pedagogical training programme Level I.

Candidates enrolled in an undergraduate programme on a state-funded place will benefit of state funding to study the Pedagogical module courses.

Candidates enrolled in an undergraduate programme on a tuition-paying basis will study the Pedagogical module courses on tuition.
